The engineer used a custom-modified Cecompt DPG1000B. This gauge is “very tough, durable, and accurate” and is able to withstand aircraft lubricants such as “skydrol,” which will soften/deteriorate many plastic materials and paints.

Problem. Solved.